

CYCLING

Mallorca is quite simply one of the best cycling destinations in Europe. Some of the top teams base themselves here for winter training, taking advantage of the excellent road surfaces and challenging mountain routes.

Some of the toughest routes offer a test for the most accomplished, whilst there are also many programs for cyclists looking for a more leisurely approach. Hotels with cycle stations are hand picked and support vehicles are available.

Individual route planning and guided tours are also available.

